Austin CROP Hunger Walk
Camp Mabry
March 1, 2026

www.austincrophungerwalk.org

The Austin CROP Hunger Walk is one of the largest walkathons in the nation. The goal is to raise funds and awareness to combat hunger caused by factors like natural disasters and inadequate access to water. In 2025, the Austin Walk raised $107,943, with 400+ walkers at Camp Mabry. The event receives significant media exposure, making it a valuable opportunity for sponsors to demonstrate their commitment to the Austin community.

The Austin CROP Hunger Walk will be held on Sunday, March 1, 2026 at Camp Mabry.

Why Sponsor the CROP Hunger Walk?

There are many reasons why it makes smart business sense to sponsor the CROP Hunger Walk.

When you support CROP Hunger Walks, you:

- Help to meet the special needs of the hungry in your community
- Assist homeless families following disasters and famines
- Share your concern with your neighbors and customers
- Get some exercise, too!

Typical CROP Walker Demographics

- 68% are over 18, average age is 33.5
- Approximately two-thirds are women
- 64% of CROP Walkers over age 18 have a college or advanced degree, half are professionally employed in their communities
- 73% of participants say fighting hunger locally and globally is their key reason for taking part
- 53% say the CROP Hunger Walk is the only fund-raising marathon-type activity in which they participate
- Walkers get about 95% of their sponsors from their neighborhood, workplace, family, and place of worship

CROP Hunger Walk Sponsorship Summary

Sponsorship Benefits

Sponsorship of the CROP Hunger Walk will support the struggle against hunger locally and around the world.

Sponsorship offers substantial advertising exposure through social media and print promotion.

Participating as a team in the walk is a fun team-building opportunity for your group.
